Steve, you would light up the room with your smile and your laughter. I always loved your sense of humor and Oreas too. I will never forget all the fun times we all had at our house with dinner and drinks. You will be missed terribly. I loved seeing you and scooner taking walks on our street. Even seeing you across the street on your porch with your red solo cup. The bacardi commercials, no matter where you and orea were in your house as soon as that commercial came on you would both start dancing and make your way to each other dancing. Your spirit will always live on in my heart. I am heartbroken, may you rest in peace my friend. I will never forget you and you will be missed forever. Love always, Lisa, Mark, Nico DiFazio
