“ Sue, I miss you. I wished that we had lived closer together as a family.

Grandma MARRS always took and made me light a candle when I was little, now I am lighting a candle for you. It was too early for you. I am sorry that I was not a better brother.

I am leaving soon, moving to the other side of the world. Nothing holding me here now. Time to move on, lost from the family, no matter my time is almost at the end.

Hope you are together with the folks.

I always hoped that Julie and I would mend the fence, guess that will never happen.

I hope you are at peace, I miss you.

Your big brother, Paul

“ Andy: We are in Florida for the Winter and just found out from the Telegraph that Susan had passed. We are so sorry for your loss and know this is a very difficult time for you .You and Susan and we shared so much with the M.S. Society over the years and she will be missed by many; I particularly remember the cooking at the fund raising events. Our warmest thoughts are with you and your family at this time. “ *My dear sister, Even though we were many miles apart, you are as close to me as any sister could be to a brother. I know that you are in a place of pure joy! without the physical burden you once endured for so long.
I love you my sister now, and always!! Mike*

“ Sue, you will always be in my heart just like I told you. I know you are happier than you have ever been now. Seeing your timeless friends and family. Getting to be the first of us to see Dad again is lucky for you. It was an honor to spend all of these weeks with you, and really know everything about each other. I will always love you my dear sister Sue..... Julie
