“ Hi Pat and Family, Our deepest sympathies to you. Wow, I have so many memories of the 'old' Sand Hill days involving Ted. I recall Mom and Dad coming home very late at night from your home, playing cards, etc. The horseshoe games I also remember! We also have 'new' memories of seeing you and him when we would come calling to see if you wanted girl scout cookies and to 'trick or treat' with our kids. Will continue to come by.

Love

“ Dear Aunt Patty, Chrissy, Jess, David, and Corinn, Words cannot express how sorry I am. I loved him so much and I love you all. May God Bless you.

My Favorite Uncle, I will miss you very much. I remember all of the caring fun ways about you. You helped to make family gatherings memorable. I will always remember our sing-a-longs. I still know all the words to "When I'm 64" (which we had to bribe Chrissy into singing..) love ya' cous), "An Octopus' Garden", "Yellow Submarine", and "Here Comes the Sun"..... where you would turn to us kids and have us sing the part, "Doo doo doo doo...". I know that Granny is happy to see you. I'm sure the two of you are hittin' the slot machines at this very moment. I love you, Uncle Teddy.

“ I have so many fun memories of Uncle Teddy while growing up on Sandhill Road. Softball games in the road, basketball in our driveway, guitar singalongs at the holidays, cookouts, and just his fun loving, caring personality. God bless Pat and his family and may they find peace knowing he is in a restful place, maybe playing guitar with John, Ringo and George.
