“ I am saddened to hear of your tremendous loss. Tom and I worked together at Sanders for many years. I learned so much from him -- he was like another father to me. A true gentleman. He spoke of his family so often to me...he was so proud of his wife and three girls. My sincere condolences on your tremendous loss. Tom was truly a good man. I was blessed to have known him. May he rest in peace. Take good care of each other.

“ Please allow me to extend the condolences of the entire Bishop Guertin Community. Our beautiful statue, dedicated to Our Lady, given in memory of Marie, will be a constant reminder of the support and influence of the Burns' family on our school. Please know you are all in our thoughts and prayers during the difficult days ahead.

With our deepest sympathy;
Linda Brodeur, President, BGHS

I have such fond memories of both your dad and mom, especially in our younger years when there were parties and family get-togethers so often. Your Dad was so kind and so caring. A true gentleman. I am so sorry for your loss. Bobby Amelio
