“ I wish to express my condolences to the family for your loss. It is a painful time for family and friends to lose a loved one. I often find comfort and perhaps you do also from what is written in the holy scriptures. An account that can have a soothing affect is found in John chapter 11. This is when our Lord Jesus had lost his good friend Lazarus in death. The hope that this chapter gives us for the future to see our loved ones again can be very comforting for all of you. Once again my deepest sympathies and prayers for you.
