“ Dear James & Janet,
My sincere condolences to you and the family. It is hard enough to try to put into words the emotions you are dealing with right now. True comfort can only be found by knowing the true Creator. Knowing that He hates death: he even views it as an enemy. (1 Corinthian 15:26) He has “a yearning” to conquer that enemy, to undo death by means of the resurrection. He longs to bring back those who are in his memory and to see them live on earth again- Job 14:14,15. And for the mean time“ He heals the brokenhearted; He binds up their wounds.”(Psalms 147:3). So trust that He can comfort you.

“ When I think of Tommy, I think of all those great Halloween costumes he wore...I think of beer can bowling and how much he loved being with his family...and most of all, I think of that absolutely beautiful smile he wore on his face...particularly when he heard his Mom or Dad's voice. Tommy, I know you are free of all those things that bound you here on earth and for that, I am smiling.

“ I was crushed to hear of Tommy's passing. He was such a bright spot in my days at Alvirne. His kindness and bravery were qualities for every man to aspire to in their lifetimes.

During the few short years I knew him, I saw him achieve the impossible. I can only imagine the celebration being held in his honor in his new Home.
