“ As a neighbor of Mr. Milne’s these past five years, I saw him almost daily walking his beloved dog. They were a fixture in the neighborhood, and occasionally Mr. Milne would stop at my driveway and we’d chat. He seemed like a lovely man, always smiling, warm and friendly. I’ll miss seeing him. My condolences to his family.##imported-begin##David Rioux##imported-end##

“ Dear Debbie and Family:

I was so sorry to learn of Bill's passing when I returned from a family reunion last week on Cape Cod.

I was so pleased that I got to reconnect with Bill and to meet you at the 50th reunion BHS class of 1960.

Just remember all of the good times you shared together. It is not easy to lose such a good person.

I just celebrated the one year anniversary of losing my youngest sister, Jo Dvareckas, from Nashua, NH on August 17th.

May you find strength and faith to get by these difficult times.

Fondly,

“ To Debbie, Laura, Dave and all the rest of the extended family, my sincere sympathy and prayers go out to you. I know Bill cherished his family dearly as he often spoke about all of you: the wedding trip to Italy, the impending marriage of Dave and Carly, and all the other trips taken to visit the friends in Europe. I hope that time will ease your sorrow.

To Bill, I enjoyed working with you: your incredible knowledge and sense of humor made my job easier. But I enjoyed getting to know you even more. Thanks for sharing your stories, your sense of caring, for offering your advice, and most of all for telling me to stop putting off the really important things in life. I will miss you fiercely.##imported-begin##Mary Williams##imported-end##

“ Bill and I worked on different teams which is probably why our talks had more to do with Europe than work. He gave me great information about Italy which helped my wife and I when we traveled there a few years ago. At first in awe of him and his solid IT talents, we became good friends over the last few years. It was always a treat to run into him at work. I will miss him. My thoughts are with those most close to him, that you might heal and find strength in the memories of Bill that added dimension to your lives. God bless.##imported-begin##George Darrell##imported-end##
