“ Dear Sharon, Paul and the Abbott Family,

So sorry to hear about your sudden loss. Having known Billy over the years, he taught me many customer service lessons. Having supplied Abb-Kin many pounds of dynamite over the years, he was a loyal and very fair customer. You could always count on his direct feedback on what he was thinking. I will miss those phone calls. God Bless.##imported-begin##Skip Sibley##imported-end##

“ Dear Sharon,

Words cannot express how sorry we are for your loss. Billy was a good man and an honest friend. You always knew where you stood with him, even if it was somewhere you did not want to be! David enjoyed their hunting and fishing adventures together as well as the "stories" that grew as a result of them. Billy will never be forgotten as he will remain in our hearts always. You are in our thoughts and we pray for God to give you the extra help through the rough days ahead. Love , David & Ro##imported-begin##Ro and Dave ##imported-end##

“ Dear Sharon, Shawn, Dawn, Paul, Janice and family. I am so sorry for your loss. Words can not describe the feelings I share. I met Billy in the early years of Abbott Drilling & Blasting as a young mechanic, I wasn't sure what to think about this man. As time went on, I saw a stand up straight shooting honest caring man who loved his family. I am proud to call Billy my friend and will miss him dearly. If I can help in any way, Please Call. God speed Billy! With love and respect.

“ Dawn & Jim,

Our deepest sympathies go out to you and your family. While I did not get the privilege to spend a lot of time with Bill, the time I did spend with him was extremely enjoyable. Well, maybe with the exception of the first time we met...

I can remember when we first moved volleyball to your house. I took a ride early one evening to find the place. I drove down the driveway to the court, anxious to see where we would be playing soon. I walked around for a few minutes, got back in my car and headed back up the driveway. Standing in the middle of the driveway was a man with his arms folded, snarling at me as I approached.

After explaining why I was there, Bill told me I was lucky he was in a good mood, because he almost grabbed his gun on the way out the door!

Following a less than cordial introduction, there were several occasions that Bill and I shared some private discussions and, of course, the poker games on Super Bowl Sunday. It didn't take much time to understand just what kind of guy Bill was; gruff, but warm; stern, but funny; private, yet personable. The love he held for his family was evident in everything he said and did. Bill enjoyed the simple pleasures that life has to offer, and reveled in joy of spending time with the family and close friends he loved so much.

Bill was a man's man, someone I admired and respected. Keep the warm memories of your time with him close and be grateful for having known him. I know I will...##imported-begin##Bob & Faith Fahlin##imported-end##

“ Dear Sharon and Family,
I am at a loss for words. Billy was such a kind strong man. The last motorcycle ride we took together my husband David was so sick we left early. Billy called me the next day to be sure Dave was ok and offered help to me. Now they are riding endless roads together. Sharon I hope you feel the same comfort in knowing they're together that I do..for me it eases the pain. “ We did not know Billy well but had the opportunity to ride with he and Sharon on two bike trips to Maine. The memories of "Skunk Run" were made all the better by the laughs Billy and Paul gave us telling stories of their youth. Watching their two bikes lead our pack and sitting in the evening sun on the porch of the motel telling stories are memories I'll never forget. Thank you for that.##imported-begin##Lauren & Steven Erickson##imported-end##
