“ Ma, I'm not ready to say goodbye to you. How can I say goodbye to the person who raised me to be respectful, and strong. You taught me to be family strong, and I will always be there for my brothers and sister ,just like I know they'll be there for me. You raised us that way. I will always remember the lessons you taught us and will cherish the memories we made together as a family. You live on in my children, I see you in Sara's confidence and Scrappy's brashness and especially in Sam's cheerfulness I'm not ready to say goodbye but because of the lessons you taught me and seeing you in my children I will never forget you. I love you, always have and always will. We'll be together in time and I know you'll have a place set for me. Love always, Harold (Peanut)

“ Yolande and the whole Rowell family were really close friends growing up. We were part of their CB patrol. We would spend every weekend together, and have cookouts. One of my best friends is here daughter-in-law Carolann.

I am so sorry for your loss, she will be truly missed, but the memories will always live on.
