

Zachary O'Brien

March 11, 1996 - July 31, 2017

Zachary O'Brien, 21 of Windham, NH, died Monday, July 31, 2017, following a battle he fought for many years against Bipolar Disorder and Heroin Addiction. Though his addiction didn't define who he was, it took from us the boy we so deeply loved.

He was born March 11, 1996 in Melrose, MA and was raised in Windham, NH. Zack loved fishing and camping as well as riding his dirt bike and drawing. He found peace while sitting around the campfire with family and friends, always making people laugh with his silly demeanor and antics.

His loving family includes his mother and father, Debra and David Gallucci of Windham, his father, Stephen O'Brien of Tampa, FL, three sisters, Miquela Paige O'Brien, Madison Gallucci, and Gabby Gallucci, all of Windham, as well as several aunts, uncles, cousins, and one niece.

Visiting hours will be held on Sunday, August 6th from 12 noon - 3pm in the DUMONT-SULLIVAN FUNERAL HOME, 50 FERRY ST. IN HUDSON, NH. Following cremation, a graveside service will be held at 11am on Tuesday, August 8th in Pinewood Cemetery, Pine Hill Road, in Nashua. All may meet at the cemetery. In lieu of flowers the family strongly encourages donations be made in Zach's loving memory to Hope for NH, PO Box 358, Manchester, NH 03105.

Butterflies – A Symbol of the Resurrection

Caterpillars spin cocoons, metamorphosing into butterflies.
Jesus, lying in the grave, was like a caterpillar wrapped in a cocoon.
After he died on the cross, men put his body in a cave and rolled a stone in front of it. But the cave could not hold him, just like the cocoon cannot hold the caterpillar. The caterpillar is transformed into a beautiful butterfly. Jesus, too experiences a transformation.
And with his death and resurrection, we too, are assured of life eternal. Will you ever look at a butterfly in the same way again?*

“I'll lend you for a while a child of mine," He said.
"For you to love the while he lives and mourn for when he's dead.
It may be six or seven years, or twenty-two or three,
But will you, till I call him back, take care of him for me?
He'll bring his charms to gladden you, and should his stay be brief,
You'll have his lovely memories as solace for your grief."

"I cannot promise he will stay; since all from earth return,
But there are lessons taught down there I want this child to learn.
I've looked the wide world over in My search for teachers true
And from the throngs that crowd life's lanes I have chosen you.
Now will you give him all your love, not think the labor vain,
Nor hate Me when I come to call to take him back again?"

"I fancied that I heard them say, "Dear Lord, Thy will be done!
For all the joy Thy child shall bring, the risk of grief we run.
We'll shelter him with tenderness, we'll love him while we may,
And for the happiness we've known, forever grateful stay;
But should the angels call for him much sooner than we've planned,
We'll brave the bitter grief that comes and try to understand!"

Dear Debbie, Dave and "the best sisters ever",

Of all the words used to describe Zack, there is truly only one-- irreplaceable. To all of Zack's family and friends, may your treasured memories of him get you through this terribly difficult time. How blessed are those whose lives he touched! Soar with the Angels, Zachary Gallucci O'Brien!

“ Zach, My heart is shattered and I will never be the same. You and I got one another when no one else did we both struggled with addiction and you lost your battle. I am forever grateful for the visit we had last week and that hug you always gave me when you saw Auntie. You weren't just my nephew but you were like my own. I was so lucky to be there the day you were born and watch you grow as you spent so many nights sleeping over my house or David over yours. I am going to miss our long talks on the phone and that handsome smile. I am taking comfort in the fact that you're at peace now and with Nana. Zach you are going to be missed by so many. I love you to the moon and back and infinity and beyond. RIP my dear nephew.

Debbie, Dave and the girls, my heart aches for all of you. I am so sorry for your loss and know that you are in my prayers. Love Christine
